

Council – 9th January 2012

Appointment to outside bodies – Walsall Adult and Community College governing body

Report detail

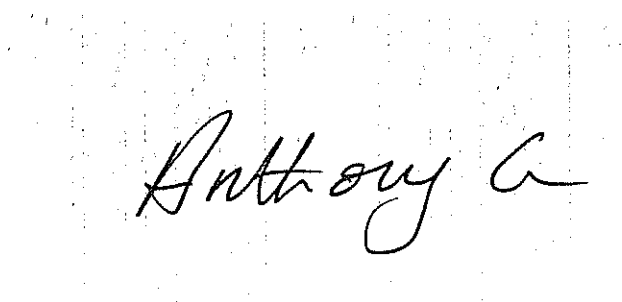

Cabinet on 9th November 2011 received a report informing them that the governing body of Walsall Adult and Community College had commissioned and completed an independent review of its governance arrangements.

At the meeting of the governing body held on 20th September 2011, it was resolved that the findings and recommendations of the review be reported to Cabinet. The changes proposed are to support the college to adopt national best practice in governance as part of the college plans to achieve outstanding Ofsted assessment and national Beacon status.

The Cabinet on 9th November 2011 approved the revised governance arrangements and in turn resolved to recommend to Council that three Walsall Council representatives be appointed to the new board.
