Council – 7 November 2011

Report from the Working Group on the Review of Polling Districts and Places

Service : Electoral Services

Wards: All wards

1. Summary

Recommendations on each polling district / polling place from the Working Group set up by council in May 2011 to conduct the statutory review of its polling districts and polling places.

2. Recommendations

That the recommendations of the Working Group, set up by council to conduct the review of the borough's polling districts and places, that are contained within each of the parliamentary constituency reports, be adopted.

3. Report detail

The membership of the Working Group was as follows;

Councillor A. Andrew (Chairperson) Councillor I. Shires Councillor F. Westley Peter Allsop (Electoral Services Manager with delegated authority from the Returning Officer) Susan Wright (Electoral Services Deputy Manager) Sue Fox (Equality & Diversity Consultant)

The review has to be based on polling districts for a UK Parliamentary election.

A polling district is the area created by the division of a constituency into smaller parts, within which a "polling place" can be determined, which is convenient for electors.

A polling place is the building or area in which polling stations will be selected by the Returning Officer. There is no legal definition of a "polling place" and if one is not designated then the polling district, by default, becomes the polling place.

A polling station has to be located within a "polling place" designated by council. It is the Returning Officer who has responsibility for determining polling stations.

While the legislation refers to polling districts and polling places, for practical reasons the review is a "bottom up" exercise in that it considers the catchment of electors around a suitable polling station, simply because finding a suitable polling station is more difficult than designating an area as a polling district.

In this review, the practice adopted has been to not specifically designate a "polling place" except where the polling station is located outside of a polling district. Therefore, by default, in the majority of cases the polling district is also the "polling place". The advantage of this is that it gives the Returning Officer greater flexibility in choosing the location of a polling station, if one previously used suddenly becomes unavailable.

The existing basic relationship between polling districts, registers and ballot boxes is a long established one but there was no one consistent type of relationship across the borough.

When polling districts were established long ago, the registers within them were based on streets in alphabetical order. This produced not only an intermixing of registers within a polling district but neither could a reasonable boundary be drawn around many polling districts.

The opportunity has been taken in this review to restructure the polling districts and registers on the basis of having one homogenous polling district with one register and one ballot box and being able to draw a reasonable boundary around the polling district.

This has resulted in the renaming of many polling districts, the elimination of the ones and twos etc (ie BB1 and BB2) and the amalgamation of some ballot boxes (in the same premises). It some cases it has also resulted in a larger polling station register but none are larger than the 2500 limit set by the Chief Counting Officer for the AV referendum and in future we will staff polling stations using the ratios required by the Chief Counting Officer as a guide.

The restructuring has generated a significant amount of work, which has to be completed before the new registers are published on1 December this year. I would like to acknowledge the efforts of S usan Wright in implementing the results of the restructuring, in the electoral registration system.

4. Council priorities

This is a statutory process council is required to undertake every fourth year. It has no direct bearing on council's priorities.

5. Risk management

There are no significant risks in implementing the review.

6. Financial implications

There are four extra portacabins required, at approximately £2000 each. These will cost £3000 more than the reduction in costs caused by the amalgamation of ballot boxes.

7. Legal implications

The review has been conducted pursuant to Section 18C of the Representation of the People Act 1983 and is legally required to be completed before 31st December 2011.

Appeals

Council's decisions may be appealed to the Electoral Commission by

- An interested authority in England or Wales
- Not less than 30 electors in the constituency
- A person (other than the Returning Officer) who has made representations (submissions) to the review
- A person who is not an elector in the authority's area but who the Commission think has sufficient interest in the accessibility of disabled persons to polling places in the area or has particular expertise in relation to the access to premises or facilities of disabled persons

The basis of any appeal must be that the council has not;

- Conducted the review so as to meet the reasonable requirements of the electors in the constituency or any body of those electors, or
- Taken sufficient account of the accessibility to disabled persons of polling stations within a designated polling place.

Section 18 E of the Act states that no election can be questioned by reason of;

- ✤ Any non-compliance with the provisions of Sections 18A to 18D of the Act, or
- Any informality relative to polling districts or polling places.

8. Property implications

None

9. Staffing implications

None

10. Equality implications

For the most part, electors who will change polling stations as a result of the review will be better served because their new polling station will be at a more convenient location for them although invariably there are always some electors that will have a little further to go to a polling station.

However, changing some people's polling station may bring some criticism in the short term simply because of the need for them to change habit on election day.

11. Consultation

The review was publicly notified with a 60 calendar day period for written submissions.

The notice of the review was sent to every household, as part of council's tax booklet and published on council's web site.

No actual submissions were received although comments from a few elected members were.

The Working Group adopted the approach of trying to find suitable alternatives for the schools currently used and has managed to remove 2 schools from the list (see table below), for the foreseeable future (9 were removed in the 2007 review). Where it has been unable to avoid using a school, it is simply because no suitable alternative is available.

Schools no longer required

- Lower farm Primary School (Bloxwich East ward)
- Park Hall Infant Academy (Paddock ward)

Background papers

Appendices A to T contains the lists of streets and house numbers that make up each polling district, based on the recommendations of the Working Group. They will become the official record of what constitutes each polling district. Any council amendments to the Working Group's recommendations will be incorporated into the relevant appendices.

Working Group's Recommendation:

• That polling districts UB1 and UB2 be amalgamated into one (UB) with some transfers out to the new UA and as defined by the area encompassed by the list of streets and street numbers in appendix P.

Reason: this will provide a simpler uniform polling district which will be better for delivery of poll cards and canvass forms and electoral material.

Transfer from UB1 to new UA (153 Houses, 207 Electors)

Reason: The polling station at Broadway United Reform Church will provide a more convenient station for these electors.

• That polling districts XI1 and XI2 be amalgamated into one and renamed XF and as defined by the area encompassed by the list of streets and street numbers in appendix T

Reason: this will provide a simpler uniform polling district which will be better for delivery of poll cards, canvass forms and electoral material.

Note; St.Mary's The Mount Catholic School, Jesson Road will be retained as the polling station for XF and the amalgamation will mean a reduction of one polling station in the same premise.

7 November 2011

Any changes recommended are shown under the heading "Working Group's Recommendation". The statement under the heading "Effect" is just a brief summary of the recommendations.

The electorate figures are as at 1 August 2011. Any transfer of electors is reflected in the figures

That polling districts JF1, JF2 and JG be combined and reconfigured with a new polling station at St Mary of the Angels church hall, Whetstone Lane for JG, with its streets and house numbers as listed below.

Reason: This will provide simpler uniform polling districts which will be better for delivery of poll cards, canvass forms and electoral material.

A number of complaints have been received since the last review in 2007 about the move of the polling station from St Mary's RC school to Whetstone Filed primary School

That polling districts PD1 and PD2 be amalgamated into one and renamed PF and as defined by the area encompassed by the list of streets and street numbers in appendix F.

Peason: this will provide a simpler uniform polling district which will be better for delivery of poll cards

• That polling districts DB1, DB2, DC1, DC2 and DD be combined and reconfigured along a north / south split, producing a new northern polling district (DE) comprising the streets and street numbers listed below, with a new polling station (a portacabin) at the Bloxwich North railway station car park, off Tintern Crescent.

Reason: the Mossley estate is a large area with a historically low turnout and only one polling station at the very southern end. Providing a northern polling station will provide a much more convenient location for nearly half the estate.

Willenhall North Ward

The reasons for the significant changes in Willenhall North are to organise the polling districts to better suit the bisection of the ward by two major roads (Lichfield Road and Cannock Rd / Essington Lane and avoid electors having to cross these roads to vote. The three new locations of polling stations should also offer better locations for the majority of their electors in the new polling districts.
