

What happens next?

We want your views

You can view the Draft Plan and evidence documents at <https://blackcountryplan.dudley.gov.uk/t2/p4/>. You can also view copies of the Draft Plan documents and a map of proposed land allocations at the following venues:

Walsall First Stop Shop

Bloxwich Library

Darlaston Library

Willenhall Library

Lichfield Street Hub

Brownhills Library

Streetly Community Library

Mobile Library Services

Aldridge Library

Have your say

Visit the website:

Complete our online response form at: www.blackcountryplan.co.uk

Email:

blackcountryplan@dudley.gov.uk

Write to us:

Black Country Plan
Planning & Regeneration, 4 Ednam Street, Dudley DY1 1HL

You can also fill in a response form and leave it at the library or Walsall Council First Stop Shop Representations.

We will use your responses in the preparation of the next stage of the Plan which is called the Publication Plan for the Black Country Plan. We intend to publish this in summer 2022. There will be an opportunity to make representations about this at that time.

Plan making process timetable

Stage	Date
Consultation on the Draft Publication Plan	August - September 2022
Submission of Plan to Secretary of State for Examination	March 2023
Examination in Public	April 2023 – March 2024
Adoption	April 2024